Dicord's Practice—Notice of Remowal.—THE undersigned, formerly a pupil with the great Ricord, of Paris, and with the celebrated surgeons of this city, Drs. Carnochan and Mott, informs the public that he has removed and permanently established his consulting and dispensing rooms at No. 516 Broadway, for the cure of seases. He tenders to all afflicted peritive ansurance of relief, and those who have been abused by "specifics," antiotes, little books, "no mercery," and like effection of the numerous medical charisatans of the day, may rely on having their cases treated effectually, no matter how complicated they may appear. His extended observations in the famous Hospital du Midl, in Paris, under Ricord himself, together with the many new and efficient remedies of this eminent surgeon, render failure impossible. It may be mentioned, for the information of patients residing in the country or distant cities, that they can at any time consult the subscriber by letter, giving a plain statement of their case, when the necessary medicines adapted to it will be prepared and sent to them. Recont cases cured without any delay. Charges quite moderate, and the most caseid information given in every instance. His treatment of consumption, acrofule and nervous disease, is based entirely on the modern and improved acience of medicine, and has been eminently successful. Consultations or Français. the worst. I hast'll your book highly spoken of, as contain ing some matter rescoling my case. On its receipt and pareasal I cannot express to you the relied it afforced my distreased mid, and the joy its page imparted do my wife on learning that the great discovery of R. M. Desomann prorided a remedy. It opened a propase to me which I liable conceived was possible. But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all humis probability my wife would have been in her grave and my children left motherless.
